Mission of the Delegation

The Foundation’s annual visit serves to update American opinion-leaders and interest groups on key developments in Hong Kong as well as sharing our observation on the developments in the Mainland China. The visit is also a networking mission allowing our Foundation to continue exchanges and further cooperation between Hong Kong and the U.S. This helps us consolidate our network, broaden our horizons, and break new ground. We will be meeting important leaders from government, Congress, academia, business, media, think-tanks, and related NGOs.
